

Dr. Turhan Keleş

Resident Pediatrician

Head of the Polyclinical Center, Berlin

Founder of Polyclinical Center Berlin with three different locations in Berlin and more than 20 doctors working for him. The professions being offered for the patients are pediatrics, internal medicine, general medicine, neurology, psychiatry, gynecology, ophthalmology, occupational therapy and speech therapy. For further information: <https://p-z-berlin.de>

Education / Scientific Activities

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 1988 - 1994 | Research Associate - Universitätsklinik Rudolf Virchow (FUB), Berlin His work mainly focused in the field of Gastroenterology establishing the C-13 urea breath test for the detection of Helicobacter pylori infections in Children or adolescent with gastritis or gastric ulcer |
| 1984 - 1988 | Dissertation and Research - Universitätskinderklinik (FUB), Berlin Dissertation work and research regarding parental feeding of newborn with 13CO2-breathingtests, scholarship holder for the scientific offspring in Germany |
| 1978 - 1984 | Medical Degree - Freie Universität Berlin (FUB), Berlin |
| 1976 | High School - Pertevniyal Lise, Istanbul, Turkey, Graduation in 1976
Scholarship provided by the Turkish government named Tübitak |