Who we are

A family company “made in Germany”, which has a global orientation and yet is always there for its customers on site.

Where we come from

From the development of the first CCTV camera up to challenging IP solutions.

Where we are going

We are experts and develop solutions for the specific requirements of our customers.

How do
users benefit from Geutebrück?

Permanently reliable

As a family company, we stand for proximity and continuity.

Made in Germany

We offer quality and integrity “made in Germany” and specially developed solutions.

We understand

The customers get “their system” – which we develop in dialogue with them and adapt to their requirements.

From one source

Thanks to our comprehensive and modular portfolio, we provide our customers with all components from one source.

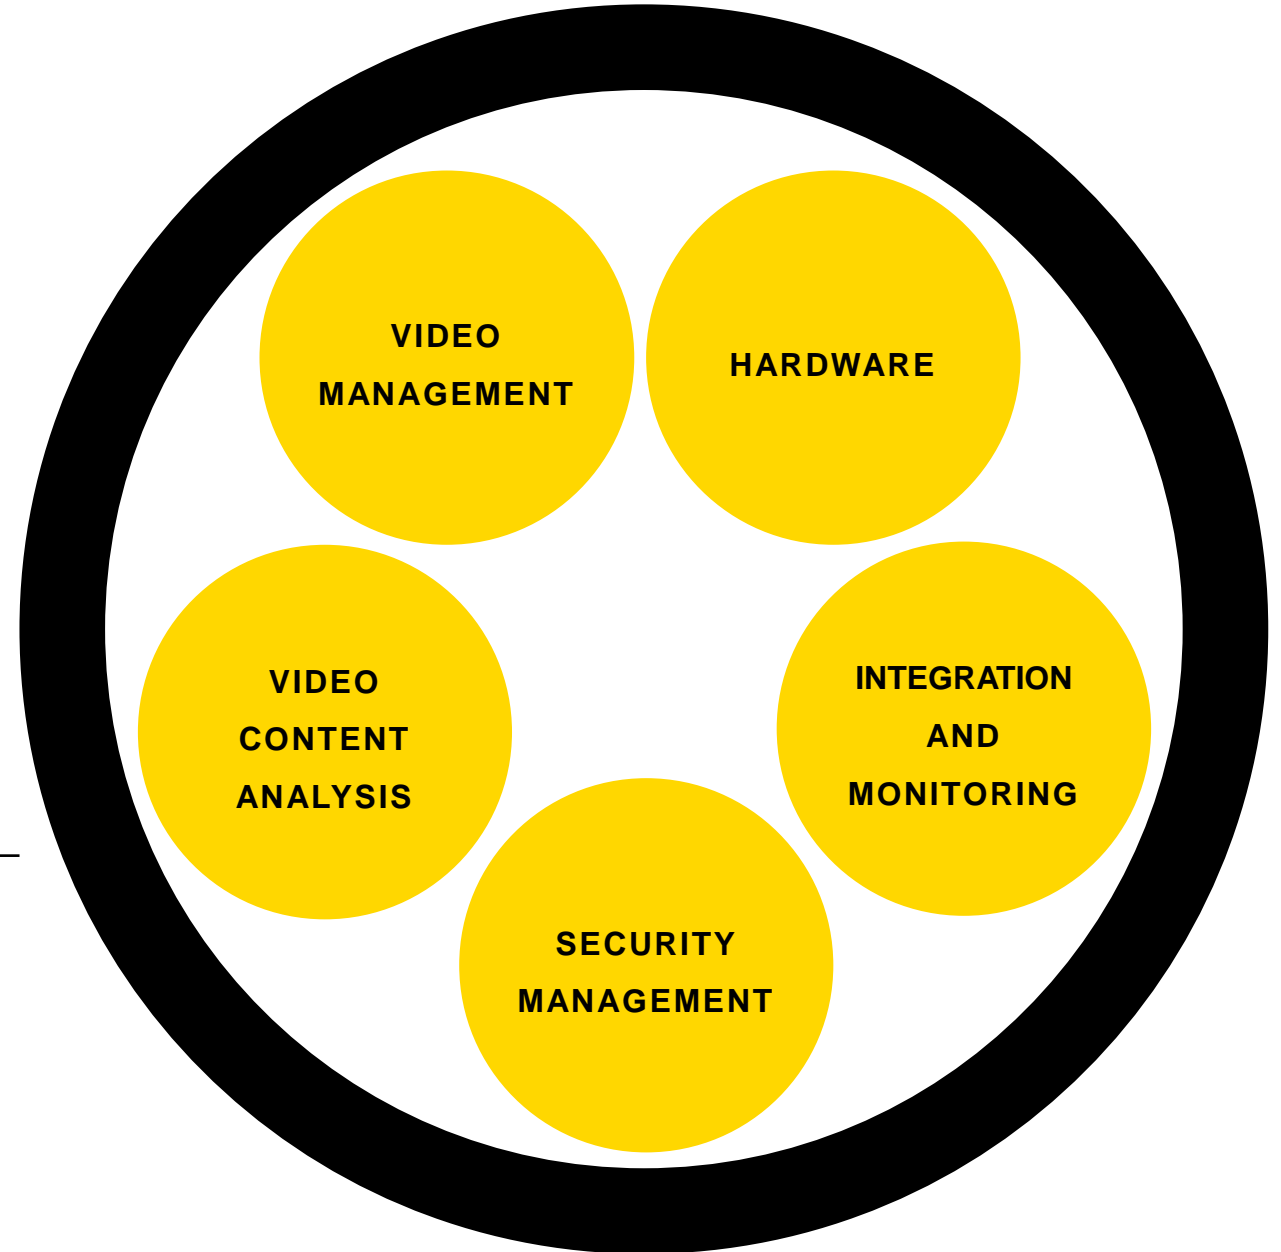

We are responsible

Our experts accompany customers – from the first analysis to the detailed application.
