

RACHAEL MASON

Partner at Lane Neave

Rachael is one at the partners of Lane Neave and is a leader in New Zealand's largest and most respected immigration law practice based out of offices located in Auckland, Wellington, Christchurch, and Queenstown.

Rachael has practiced in the area of immigration in the UK and New Zealand and has advised both multi-national corporate clients and smaller local employers across a wide range of industry sectors in managing their global and local migrant workforces. She also regularly works with employers to resolve complex immigration compliance issues. Her clients include many of New Zealand's largest and well-known employers whom she assists with issues such as developing immigration, recruitment and compliance strategies and policies.

Rachael regularly presents on key immigration policy changes and issues related to recruiting and maintaining an immigration-compliant workforce.