

Franziska Teichmann

Senior Manager & Head of the German Secretariat for the Energy Cooperation with Australia and New Zealand at adelphi

Franziska leads a team that is supporting the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Action (BMWK) in all aspects of energy cooperation with Australia and New Zealand. She is implementing the Australia-Germany Energy Partnership and the New Zealand-Germany Energy Dialogue and acts as a focal point for stakeholders. She advises on strategic decisions, organises dialogue formats, writes studies and briefing papers, networks with stakeholders and supports the strengthening of economic ties. adelphi is an independent think-and-do tank and leading consultancy on sustainability and climate, based in Berlin and Munich. adelphi has been supporting the German Government in their energy cooperation with industrialized countries since 2016. Before joining adelphi in 2019, Franziska worked as a seconded policy officer in the German Federal Ministry for the Environment and Nature Conservation on bilateral cooperation. Between 2013 and 2016, she worked as a management consultant in the energy sector.
