Escape to your private Eden

A modern getaway in the centre of a buzzing metropolis, Domotel Olympia complements its surroundings with exquisitely contemporary design, favouring elegant lines and a light colour palette, details ideal for networking or just relaxing on a leisure experience.

Its meeting facilities provide the perfect backdrop and equipment for corporate excellence, with an inviting restaurant and a stylish bar that offer handpicked flavour options from morning till night as well as rooms tailor-made to suit the traveler of today.

Domotel Olympia

A history of brilliance

Its history began in 1932, when Nikolaos Christopoulos opened the doors to the first public bath house in Thessaloniki, Loutra Olympia, offering residents the novelty of available showers, spa services and wellness treatments.

In 1964, Loutra Olympia was completely reimagined to include the first hotel in Thessaloniki, along with the already- existing bath house, elevating the city's levels of elegance and finesse. It took on its current form in 2007, when it was redesigned to draw in the modern traveller and renamed "Hotel Olympia", a striking addition to the Domotel Hotels & Resorts chain.

A soul of hospitality and a heart of humanity is a house of love, peace, freedom, liberty and justice.

Unforgettable destinations

Discover the historic city and its surroundings

Domotel Olympia is the ideal place from which to explore Thessaloniki and its hidden gems — most of which are in walking distance — as well as the beauty and variety of its surrounding areas. From visits to museums to excursions in natural destinations, including the breathtaking Kerkini Lake, there are endless options here for the entire family.

Authenticity abounds in the stately churches and the Ladadika district; every day here is a new discovery that's bound to be unforgettable!

Nea Paralia

A relaxing seaside stroll

Thessaloniki is known for Nea Paralia (Thessaloniki Beach Promenade), its most popular place for a city walk which brings visitors by the well-known White Tower and the vibrant Nikis Square.

Here, the sea breeze and intriguing vistas create a refreshing combination and spark a unique carefree feeling.

For a special treat, it's possible to book a horse-and-carriage ride for an authentic tour of some truly remarkable urban landmarks.

The Ladadika District

Thessaloniki's hot spot

Contradictions are both beautiful and intriguing in the Ladadika District at a 10-minute walk from Domotel Olympia, which is both Thessaloniki's "old town" and a buzzing destination for gastronomy and entertainment, whilst its Valaoritou Street is the city's go-to for vibrant nightlife.

The colourful homes and cobbled streets here are teeming with excitement at all hours of the day, whilst the original character of this neighbourhood, which has been at the centre of the action here for hundreds of years, is still intact as it has been declared a historic monument by the Ministry of Culture.

Extraordinary Churches

Momentous places of worship

Thessaloniki and its surrounding areas are home to a collection of churches of great significance, including the Church of Agios Dimitrios, which is dedicated to the patron saint of the city and dates back to the 7th century AD.

The central Church of Agia Sofia, as well as the Monastery of Vlatades in the Ano Poli area with its spectacular view, are two more stunning examples, designed with traditional Byzantine architecture.

Landmarks of great significance

The historic heart of the city

The city centre of Thessaloniki is teeming with structures and institutions which are part of its rich history and culture. Its Monastir Synagogue is a historic building which was constructed in the early 20th century and saved during World War II by a Red Cross requisition, at a walking distance of 5 minutes from the hotel.

Guests can continue on foot or by bike or scooter to the Atatürk Museum, which is only 7 minutes away from this point, and is housed in the former home of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the founder of the modern Turkish state.

Thessaloniki Food Tour

An unforgettable
gastronomic destination

Visitors to Thessaloniki will discover that they have found themselves in a culinary hub filled with delicious local delicacies and explore Thessaloniki Food Tour!

This includes everything from a visit to the Kapani Market, only 6 minutes away from Domotel Olympia on foot, to a taste of traditional treats and beverages, with plenty of breaks to take photos along the way.

Bit Bazar

A hidden gem near Domotel Olympia

Just down the street from our hotel, the Bit Bazar is one of Thessaloniki's treasured destinations, still fairly unknown by tourists.

Surrounded by tall buildings, this inner square is filled with quaint antique shops, as well as traditional tavernas with outdoor seating that serve wine and small, local delicacies.

Its relaxed atmosphere and 1- minute proximity to Domotel Olympia make it a must- see for all visitors to our city!

Museums & monuments

A cultural experience

In Thessaloniki, visiting museums and monuments is a must as there is a collection of exceptional institutions to explore.

For a taste of antiquity, tour the Archaeological Museum of Thessaloniki, filled with exhibits from various eras of Greece's ancient history, and visit the Rotunda of Galerius, the oldest Orthodox church in the city, which was constructed over a millennium ago.

Lovers of the arts will also enjoy exploring the Macedonian Museum of Modern Art with an impressive collection of 2,000 pieces, as well as the Museum of Byzantine Culture which offers a journey back in time through striking paintings and artefacts.

Vergina

A heaven of archaeological importance

Located at a distance of under one hour from Domotel Olympia, Vergina, a picturesque village in Imathia, was a centre of the ancient world as the first capital of Macedonia.

This Unesco World Heritage Site at the foot of Mount Pieria includes various archaeological sites: temples, an amphitheatre, and, most importantly, the world-renowned Royal Tombs, which can be discovered in depth at the Museum of the Royal Tombs of Aigai.

Mount Olympus

Home of the Greek gods

The tallest mountain in Greece and a destination that played a central role in Greek mythology, Mount Olympus was known to be the “home of the Greek gods” and has now become a popular climbing spot for sports enthusiasts.

Located at a 3-hour drive from Thessaloniki, this National Park can accommodate both novice and advanced climbers and boasts plenty of hiking routes in the fresh mountain air.

Kerkini Lake

An excursion amid gorgeous scenery

Found at a distance of an 1,30 hrs by car from Domotel Olympia, Kerkini Lake is a blissful natural haven between Mount Beles and the vast Valley of Serres.

This wetland habitat is home to nearly 300 different species of wildlife, including graceful flamingoes and great buffalos; it's easy to spot these majestic creatures during a peaceful hike here, whilst the nearby Dam of Kerkini Lake is perfect for birdwatching.

Dion

The sacred city of antiquity

Found at the northern edge of Mount Olympus, Dion is an ancient city at a distance of one hour from Thessaloniki, considered a place of holy nature by the early Macedonians; here, Alexander the Great made sacrifices to Greek god Zeus before each of his expeditions!

It's filled with temples-built millennia ago, such as the Sanctuary of Demeter and the Sanctuary of Zeus Hypsistos. Visitors can learn more at the Archaeological Museum of Dion, or simply tour its historic streets and take in their sights.
