

Be part of the 16th Asia-Pacific Conference of German Business

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

the Asia-Pacific-Conference (APK) has established itself as the most important German business and networking event in the Asia-Pacific Region. The 16th APK will take place in Jakarta, Indonesia, from 01 – 03 November 2018, and we expect again up to 1,000 business and political leaders to join the debate. The APK offers excellent opportunities for German and Asian participants to strengthen their business and personal relations.

APK 2018 – Speakers

In interactive discussion formats, our high-profile speakers will discuss topics such as free trade, future trends in production as well as the Belt and Road and other infrastructure initiatives. Many global CEOs of global companies have already confirmed their participation, including:
