Reference:	Drive TLV – Business Analyst
Company Name:	DriveTlv
Company Type: (Startup/Mature/...)	Innovation Hub
Location: (full address)	Shevah St 7, Tel Aviv-Yafo
Duration of stay: (min 2, max 6 months)

Company Description:

DRIVE is a leading innovation center for Smart Mobility technologies in Israel, with nine leading corporate partners both in Israel and worldwide - Aptiv, Cox Automotive, Hertz, Honda, Ituran, Mayer group, NEC, Volvo Cars and Volvo Group.

Our objective is to encourage and support the Israeli smart mobility ecosystem by adapting local innovation into a competitive advantage for our corporate partners. DRIVE offers a collaborative workspace, several opportunities for ecosystem exposure, as well as a unique commercialization program named Fastlane. In FastLane, we carefully select the most promising startups developing cutting-edge technologies, led by their professional teams. The program offers bilateral support to both startups and corporates, in an effort to effectively facilitate collaboration.

Job Description and Tasks:

As a Business Analyst Intern, the student will assist in managing one of DRIVE's core business efforts: Business Analysis - market Research, industry reports and internal processes optimization.

This will include direct work with DRIVE's team members and industry-leading startups on a regular basis, providing assistance to facilitate the center's various operations and efforts, and more.

Essential Requirements:

1. Strong interpersonal and analytical skills
2. Fluent in English
3. We believe candidates from the following faculties will be a good match (but open to various backgrounds): Business Management, Industrial Engineering, Economics, Exact Science
