German Chamber Ticker | Media Data 2020 www.china.ahk.de

The German Chamber Ticker is the German Chamber of Commerce's free quarterly business magazine published throughout mainland China. The cover stories and industry reports provide high-quality editorial coverage of the latest economic and social trends to the German and international business community. German Chamber Ticker is available online, through the Chamber's WeChat channel, as well as being distributed to more than 2,500 member companies of the German Chamber of Commerce in China and its partners. It is the ideal way to reach executives and senior decision makers, along with business centers, airlines, restaurants and hotels, as well as other important stakeholders of the Sino-German business community. With our flexible advertising options both small and large businesses have access to our international readership of senior executives and high-level professionals in German and international companies.

DISTRIBUTION

German Chamber Ticker has total circulation of around 14,500 printed copies, distributed by direct mail with 6,500 copies delivered to senior executives and decision makers across China. Around 6,000 copies are additionally displayed at hundreds of Chamber events and key locations throughout Beijing, Tianjin, Shanghai, Hangzhou, Suzhou and South & Southwest China on a regular basis. Furthermore, around 2,000 copies of each German Chamber Ticker issue can be found on Lufthansa flights from China to Germany.

ONLINE PRESENCE

The full version of the magazine, with all articles, interviews, extended features and much more can be read online and downloaded from the German Chamber website:
