

MARIOTA SMUTZ

Experienced Public Policy and External Affairs
Professional at Housing NZ

Mariota is an experienced strategic advisor with a background in law and economics. His career spans 20 years across both public and private sectors focussed on infrastructure, transport, energy and healthcare and has been an advisor to executive leaders, Chief Executives, Directors and Boards. As National Relationships Manager for Housing New Zealand, Mariota is responsible for building strategic partnerships to support the new direction for Housing New Zealand that will help deliver more warm, dry and healthy homes across New Zealand.