

HAND IN HAND FOR INTERNATIONAL TALENTS

Pilot Project supporting the implementation of the German Skilled Migration Act

THE PROJECT...

is a pilot project funded by the Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy (BMWi) and implemented by the Federal Employment Agency (BA) and the DIHK Service GmbH. The project started in January 2020 and will end in June 2023.

GOALS

The project partners develop and apply a practicable and transferable process to attract qualified specialists in CCI* professions from non-EU countries for companies in Germany. This approach is implemented in close cooperation with the German Federal Employment Agency, regional Chambers of Commerce and Industry (IHK) and German Chambers of Commerce Abroad (AHK).

* Chambers of Commerce and Industrie (IHK)

THE IDEAL PROCESS

Addressing and recruitment of potential applicants
in non-EU countries

Addressing and recruitment of potential employers in Germany

Placement of applicants

Implementation assistance (recognition procedure, visa, compensation measure)

Integration in the workplace

PROJECT PARTICIPANTS AND COOPERATION PARTNERS

- Chambers of Commerce and Industry (IHK) and Employment Agencies in five regions: Düsseldorf, Erfurt, Heilbronn, Lübeck and Reutlingen
- Chambers of Commerce Abroad (AHK) in three countries: Brazil, India and Vietnam
- IHK Foreign Skills Approval (IHK FOSA)
