

Georgios Pipelidis has submitted his PhD dissertation at the Technical University of Munich, on the field of precise Localization. He holds a diploma degree from the Johannes Kepler University of Austria, in the field of Pervasive Computing. Georgios has worked in the past for ILF Consulting Engineers, where he was nominee among the three of the eight thousand employees of ILF for Excellence in Technical Achievement. Georgios has fifteen scientific publications and four patents, all in the field of precise localization. Today he is Chief Executive Officer at Ariadne Maps GmbH that he cofounded with Nikolaos Tsiamitros