Incentives:

Office life

CoreTigo's offices are a truly fun place to work at, we are great believers that with good times come great outcomes. We believe in an entrepreneurship approach that allows each individual to develop and suggest new ideas. Our kitchenette is always packed with coffee, cookies, fruit, vegetables, dairy products (and vegan options), sweets and everything else you need to help fill your day and meet your cravings. We have Nerf guns laying around all over and a shoot-out may start at any given moment, come prepared!

Transportation

Our offices are located 900 meters from the nearest train station (approximately 10-minute walk), which is a 24-minute ride from the central train station in Tel-Aviv.

Remuneration

We're happy to offer the New Kibbutz's interns coverage of travel (public transportation pass) and lunch expenses, as well as assistance with groceries. CoreTigo employees will gladly pitch in to make our interns onboarding and stay as convenient as possible by assisting with finding accommodation and any other request.
